Mr. Snowden:
Supt. Mint:

Dear Sir:

James W. Snyder, a Mint employee, residing at #3847 Brown St., owes me a grocery bill of $16.56, which he has repeatedly promised to pay, but always failed. I am a lone woman with an aged mother to support and cannot afford to loose the amt. Won't you please use such steps as you see fit to have him pay it;

And oblige.
Respectfully,
